Donald Valpredo was named President, Harris Auerbach Vice President, Tim Cohen Treasurer and Sue Greene Secretary of the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association (CTBA) at Monday night's Board of Directors meeting in Berkeley.

It was also announced at the meeting that John Barr, Leigh Ann Howard and Jane Johnson were re-elected to board seats and Edward Freeman won election as the newest member of the board. Greene had been President for the previous three years but was termed out per association by-laws.

"After three outstanding years as serving as President of our organization the CTBA, Sue Greene was termed out. The directors wrestled with the thought of a change in the by-laws to extend the term for another year, but after good discussion decided to pass on a by-law change," said Valpredo.

The statistics contained in these rankings are compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems Inc. (TJCIS). While every effort is made to prevent errors and omissions, California Thoroughbred cannot guarantee their complete and total accuracy. A dagger (†) indicates that a stallion has been pensioned, an asterisk (*) that he has died, a dot (•) that he is now standing elsewhere, a number sign (#) that he did not stand in California in 2013 but is standing in the state in 2014, a double dagger (‡) that he is not standing in California in 2014 but will stand in the state in 2015 and in bold that he is a freshman sire. In all cases, a sire will remain in the rankings until the year after his last California foals are two-year-olds. Statistics cover racing in North America (U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico), England, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates only.

"We have some outstanding and energetic newcomers on the board and one or two oldtimers. To encourage and facilitate the learning process of some younger directors I inherited the position of once again serving as the President of the CTBA.

I'm looking forward to the year ahead in working with new members on the Executive Committee and in implementing some new and directed actions. This is a big year ahead of us at every level in California breeding/racing with changes in our racing calendar, the realization at the track of the first year of runners from a decline in the foal crop and many important legislative issues before us.

"California breeders are optimistic on addressing the challenges that we face and we do it with vigor and excitement and will leave no stone unturned in our goal to be a leading force in the national breeding and racing scene.

"I thank Sue for her dedicated service on the past three years, in a continuance in working with her and for the support and confidence of the directors in electing me to this one year term."

Valpredo, a native Californian, is a lifelong horseman and rancher from Bakersfield, where he partnered with his father, John, on Dimaggio. Valpredo later co-bred California Horse of the Year Soviet Problem with fellow CTBA Board member John Harris.

Valpredo served three earlier one-year terms as CTBA President from 1986-88. He is credited with helping conceive California Cup. Valpredo also has served on the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB), the Breeders' Cup, the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) and is a member of The Jockey Club.

Freeman, a native of England, has trained since 1990 and bred in partnership for 20 years. He oversees Paul Reddam's breeding operation at Vessels Stallion Farm, which includes the leading sire Square Eddie and more than 30 mares.

"The foal crop in California has halved since I first moved here but I believe that the work done by the CTBA to boost rewards for California-breds has helped to stabilize those numbers," Freeman wrote in his ballot statement. "The challenge is to create an environment in which the breeding industry can flourish. Being an owner and trainer, as well as a breeder, I am well aware of the obstacles faced by all groups. I look forward to working towards a stronger breeding industry in California."

Greene has been involved with Thoroughbred racehorses since 1969, and currently owns and manages Woodbridge Farm in Oakdale.

Barr has been an owner/breeder in California for over 40 years and is a Past President of CTBA. He is President and Director of the Oak Tree Racing Association, has served on the Board of Stewards of The Jockey Club and served for five years on the Board of Directors of Breeders' Cup Ltd.

Howard became a member of the CTBA in 1968 and has been on the CTBA's Board of Directors for 16 years.

Johnson, a member of the CTBA since 1979, is the co-owner, along with her husband Myron, of Rivendell Ranch in Fresno.

First Foal For Storm Cat Son Calimonco

The first reported foal for Storm Cat's dual stakes-winning son Calimonco was a filly born February 5 at Don and Karen Cohn's Ballena Vista Farm near Ramona, California.

Bred by Ballena Vista Farm and Martin J. Wygod, the dark bay or brown filly is the first foal out of Action Nine, a winning daughter of War Front.

Calimonco, who had career earnings of $391,486, won the 2011 Wickerr Stakes at the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club and 2012 Sidd Finch Stakes at Santa Anita Park. He is a full brother to champion two-year-old filly Sweet Catomine and Breeders' Cup Ladies Classic (grade I) winner Life is Sweet.—continued at www.BloodHorse.com, By Blood-Horse Staff

California Chrome Preps At Los Alamitos For San Felipe

California Chrome, seeking to become the first California-bred to win the Kentucky Derby since Decidedly in 1962, worked towards his ultimate goal Saturday morning at Los Alamitos, going four furlongs in 48 seconds under regular rider Victor Espinoza.

"Perfect," is how trainer Art Sherman described the move for the chestnut son of Lucky Pulpit, owned and bred by Martin Perry of Yuba City, California, and Steven Coburn of Wellington, Nevada.

"He went in 48, just breezing," Sherman continued. "Espinoza said he went really nice."

In eight career starts, California Chrome has faced open company twice, finishing fifth in the Willard Proctor Memorial Stakes at Hollywood Park last June, and sixth, beaten only two lengths, in the grade I Del Mar Futurity on September 4.—From Santa Anita Publicity, Stable Notes By Ed Golden

Statewide Handle Up 14 percent In January

Wagering at California tracks rose 14 percent in January, bucking a national trend, according to discussions at an open forum conducted at Santa Anita Park by the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) on February 8.

"With the country being down on handle, a lot of that has to do with weather on the East Coast, wagering on California was up 14 percent and purse generation was up 12 percent," said the TOC President, Joe Morris. "We've been consistently outperforming this year. That's good news for us out here."

California had a dry January, with hardly any rainfall, leaving the state in a drought. That led to little disruption to racing.—continued at www.DRF.com, By Steve Andersen

TOC Forum Focuses On Purses, Reducing Costs

Increasing purses and reducing costs were primary topics at the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) open forum held at Santa Anita Park on February 8.

TOC chair Mike Pegram, president Joe Morris, and seven other board members brought the audience of about 20 up to date on several issues and took questions.

The TOC is working with the industry to try to recapture money for purses from advance deposit wagers made on track through a bettor's computer or phone, Morris said. An on-track wager generates more money for purses than an ADW wager.—continued at www.BloodHorse.com, By Tracy Gantz

Equine Fatalities Down 24 Percent In California

Equine fatalities at California tracks dropped 24 percent in the 2012-13 fiscal year to its lowest number in more than two decades, according to the California Horse Racing Board's annual report, published earlier this month.

From July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013, 209 horses of all breeds died within enclosures under the jurisdiction of the racing board throughout the state. By comparison, there were 278 fatalities in the 2011-2012 fiscal year, and 265 in the 2010-2011 fiscal year. The figure reached 325 in the 2007-08 fiscal year.

Longtime California Horseman Bill Currin Dies

Bill Currin, who bred, owned, and trained 2006 Hollywood Futurity (grade I) winner Stormello, died February 11 in Solana Beach, California, after a long illness. He was 77. His wife of 58 years, Betty, was at his side, as she has been since they became childhood sweethearts in North Carolina.

The Currins have raced several major stakes winners. Bill trained their home-bred Memorette, a graded stakes-winning earner of $896,753. As Bill liked to tell the story, the only reason the mare raced in Betty's name was because Bill didn't have time to get to a jewelry store one Christmas.

Memorette's second dam, Fondre, won five stakes for Currin and W. R. Hawn.

New Del Mar Turf Course By February 21

If you think putting in a new turf course at a racetrack is as simple as watching grass grow, well, you don't know worms about turf.

For an understanding of how complicated it is to install a new grass course for 1,200-pound racehorses at Del Mar, know this: It all started October 1, 2012 when sprigs of Greg Norman 1 (GN1) Bermuda grass were planted on a sandy, 12-acre plot in the Coachella Valley. —continued www.utsandiego.com, By Ed Zieralski

Dust To Dust: Exhuming Native Diver From Hollywood Park

Following the closure of Hollywood Park, the only horse remaining in track's walking ring is one who had been in the ground for 46 years. Native Diver, often heralded as the West Coast's Kelso, was brought to rest there after dying suddenly from a bout of colic. After the track closed on December 22, officials made the decision to move the horse's remains to the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, but activists say that isn't the end of the story.

Native Diver was one of only a handful of runners that were buried at Hollywood Park. A dark-coated, nearly black gelding, he was bred for sprints but trained for distance by Buster Millerick. The combination proved lethal for competitors, who could not catch his early speed or outlast his seemingly endless endurance. A homebred for Mr. and Mrs. Louis K. Shapiro, Native Diver claimed 37 victories in his 81-race career, including three straight Hollywood Gold Cups.

Diver had a fiery temperament to match his spirit on the track and was known to be a poor shipper.

"He was very explosive, and he had that type of personality to be around," recalled Tom Shapiro, grandson of Louis K. Shapiro. "It was his way in the stall. He would stand in the corner and ignore you—he would do what he wanted to do."

After equalling a track record in the 1967 Del Mar Handicap, Diver was struck by colic and was transported to the University of California-Davis, where he died.—continued at <http://www.paulickreport.com>, by Natalie Voss

Grassroots Bus Tour Part Of Launch For The Film "50 to 1"

The Academy Award-winning producer Jim Wilson was watching the Kentucky Derby on a small television screen in his Los Angeles office in 2009, when the last-to-first burst of unlikely winner Mine That Bird seized his senses. For the past three years, Wilson has worked to bring the little gelding's eternal moment to the big screen, and the result is the feature-length film "50 to 1" that opens in New Mexico on March 21.

The movie will be released in six subsequent states in a tiered schedule, and depending on its popularity will then move into other markets, said Wilson, its producer, writer, and director. The film will be promoted in a fashion reminiscent of the road trip Mine That Bird took when his connections vanned the Kentucky Derby longshot from his New Mexico base to Churchill Downs.

In a tour bus, Wilson and members of the cast of "50 to 1," which includes Skeet Ulrich as trainer Chip Woolley and Christian Kane as co-owner Mark Allen, will travel a somewhat similar route while stopping at movie theaters and other destinations along the way. The group is currently scheduled to appear at the Sunland Park Derby on March 23; the Louisiana Derby at Fair Grounds on March 29; the Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park on April 12; and the Lexington Stakes at Keeneland on April 19.

California Weekly Hay Report From Friday, February 7, 2014

For Any Questions On This List Please Contact: 970-353-9750

Tons: 11,556 Last Week: 5,975 Last Year: 4,319

Compared to last week: Prices remained firm in most areas, with advancements by as much as 10.00 to 20.00 higher in the Imperial Valley. Some rain fall was reported in the Northern and Central Regions of the state, with some much need snow falling in the Sierra Nevada's. The hay market continues to march higher, with the impacts of the drought becoming more of a reality. Additionally, firmer milk prices have spurred the dairymen to begin buying some higher quality hay. Producers are already concerned about the water situation next year. According to the Wall Street Journal, most farmers haven't received water they're due for since 2008 when federal regulators began restricting water exports from the Delta to residents in the south to protect "threatened" fish such as the smelt and the salmon. The federal regulations have caused millions of acre-feet of water to be flushed into the Bay instead of being sent down the line to irrigate crop lands in the Central and Southern regions of the state. Livestock producers are beginning to search for hay outside their normal marketing areas, with reports of hay moving out of Oregon, Nevada, and the Imperial Valley to try and meet demand while supplies last. Trade activity was active on very good buyer demand.

CTBA Magazine Update

The February 2014 issue of California Thoroughbred, the official publication of the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association (CTBA), has been completed and is currently being mailed out to its subscribers and the CTBA membership. Featured as this edition's cover story is Phil Lebherz's Premier Thoroughbreds in Oakdale that is home to the stallions Smiling Tiger, Sierra Sunset, Sway Away and Twice the Appeal, as well as Pat Grohl and Amie Allen's state-of-the-art Premier Equine Center which specializes in horse rehabilitation by utilizing hydrotherapy.

Besides this article, the latest magazine also includes many other feature stories of interest, such as: an editorial on California-bred Points Offthebench, the 2009 son of Ballena Vista Farm's Benchmark who was posthumously awarded the 2013 Eclipse Champion Male Sprinter trophy based on his two grade I wins last year; an analysis of the 2013 records for all those Cal-breds who were included on last year's champions voting ballot for CTBA members; a profile on Jerry Hollendorfer, last year's CTBA Trainer Of The Year whose 2013 career season included grade I wins by Shared Belief, Lady of Fifty, Sahara Sky and Cal-bred Tamarando; reviews of both those sires who led the overall standings in California during 2013, and the Golden State's top freshman sires of last year; a CTBA Member Profile on Charles "Chuck" Winner, the new Chairman of the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) whose successful runners over the years have included the multiple graded stakes-winning Cal-bred Liberian Freightier and current California stallion The Pamplemousse; a Focus On The Future piece on 30-year-old Alexis Garske, who was introduced to horses and racing by her later father Richard and currently works full time at Santa Anita Park; a wrap-up of the win by Cal-bred Gervinho in the grade II, $201,000 Sir Beaufort Stakes at Santa Anita on Dec. 26, 2013; wrap-ups of the wins at Santa Anita last month by the Cal-bred duo of Cyclometer and Dancin' to the Stars in the $88,960 Midnight Lute Stakes and $91,000 Megahertz Stakes, respectively; an Another Man's Treasure story on the 11-year-old Cal-bred gelding Cost of Freedom, a grade I-winning millionaire who has now been retired by his new owner John Malone; the latest chapter in the Cal-Bred Millionaires' Row series, featuring the grade I winner and millionaire Ultra Blend who became the 57th locally bred runner to reach this milestone when she ran fourth in the grade I, $1,818,000 Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic at Churchill Downs in Kentucky on May 4, 2011; the latest chapter in the A Blast From The Past series, spotlighting the Cal-bred colt Terrang who won the $145,000 Santa Anita Handicap on February 28, 1959; a Horse Care article titled "Physitis In Young Horses"; a Guest Forum contribution by Megan Gaynes of Auction Horses Rescue that details her admirable quest during the past three years to save as many Thoroughbred mares as possible, including the stakes-winning Cal-breds Blonde Bounty and Blonde Fever; and all the many other interesting and informative features, departments and columns that this publication's loyal readers look forward to every month.

So now is the time to secure valuable advertising space in the March 2014 copy of California Thoroughbred, the monthly publication that remains the best medium for marketing Thoroughbred stallions, farms and businesses in the Golden State. To ensure representation in this next issue, please contact the CTBA's Advertising Manager Loretta Veiga without further delay at either Loretta@ctba.com or (626) 445-7800, extension 227.
