Big Plans For California Chrome

The Cessna 172 is a single-engine, fixed-wing private plane that seats four, costs about $290,000 new, and can be seen by the dozens at regional airports throughout the world. The plane was going to be Steve Coburn's new hobby a few years ago.

"I wanted to buy an airplane," Coburn said last weekend. "My wife said no."

Carolyn Coburn was not keen on the aviation idea, leading the couple to seek an alternative investment. They chose Thoroughbred racehorses. When Carolyn Coburn put her foot down over the airplane, she made a decision that put her family on the 2014 Triple Crown trail.—at www.DRF.com, By Steve Andersen

General Challenge Passes At 18

General Challenge, two-time California champion and seventh on the all-time California-bred money earning list, passed away Tuesday at Golden Eagle Farm at age 18.

"Its with a heavy heart that we announce the great General Challenge has been euthanized," read a post on Golden Eagle Farm's Facebook page. "He was not doing well the last few days and today his condition deteriorated rapidly. The great ones always tell us when its their time and he told us today. Everyone at the farm was with him when he passed. He is being buried next to Best Pal at Golden Eagle Farm."

The statistics contained in these rankings are compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems Inc. (TJCIS). While every effort is made to prevent errors and omissions, California Thoroughbred cannot guarantee their complete and total accuracy. A dagger (†) indicates that a stallion has been pensioned, an asterisk (*) that he has died, a dot (•) that he is now standing elsewhere, a number sign (#) that he did not stand in California in 2013 but is standing in the state in 2014, a double dagger (‡) that he is not standing in California in 2014 but will stand in the state in 2015 and in bold that he is a freshman sire. In all cases, a sire will remain in the rankings until the year after his last California foals are two-year-olds. Statistics cover racing in North America (U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico), England, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates only.

Send Photos Of 2014 Foals

Through the August 2014 issue of California Thoroughbred, the official publication of the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association (CTBA), this year's crop of Thoroughbreds foaled in the Golden State will again be spotlighted in each monthly magazine with advertorials featuring six to eight photos of foals per page.

The cost to publish individual photos is $75 each, while a full page insertion will be discounted down to $500. These charges represent a reduction of more than 50 per- cent on the price of a regular full-page advertisement in the magazine. Insertions will include a caption with each foal's sire, dam, broodmare sire, sex, date of birth and breeders, as well as the details, including a logo, of their farm location.

Photos need to be submitted by the following Monday deadlines; March 3 (April issue); April 7 (May issue); May 5 (June issue); June 2 (July issue); and July 7 (August issue).

For additional information, please contact the magazine's Advertising Manager, Loretta Veiga, at Loretta@ctba.com/(626) 445-7800, extension 227, or its Managing Editor, Rudi Groothedde, at rudi@ctba.com/(626) 445-7800, extension 226.

The California Thoroughbred Breeders Association, encourages breeders to submit photos of newly arrived foals for posting on the site.

Digital photos only will be accepted and should be sent as email attachments, accompanied by the names of the sire, broodmare, broodmare sire, breeder and foaling date.

Terry Lovingier Appointed To TOC Board

The board of directors of the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) unanimously voted to appoint Terry Lovingier to fill a vacancy on the board created by the recent resignation of Madeline Auerbach.

Lovingier, a native of Oklahoma who was raised in Lakewood, California, has had a lifelong love of horses. With his wife Barbara, he owns and operates Lovacres Ranch in Warner Springs just east of Temecula. The ranch encompasses over 500 acres and is home to several Thoroughbred stallions, including Awesome Gambler, Empire Way, Time to Get Even, Bushwacked, Grace Upon Grace and Swiss Yodeler. Lovingier, who races mainly in partnerships, has campaigned many good runners including Willa B Awesome and currently has Willie B Awesome, Time For Angie, Time for a Hug and Takem By Surprise.

"Terry brings a wealth of experience as both a breeder and an owner to the TOC board," said Chairman Mike Pegram. "As a member of the CTBA board of directors as well, he will be a great asset in helping us nurture a strong working relationship between our two organizations."

"I look forward to working on behalf of California owners and know there is much work to be done," said Lovingier. "We need to take care of the people who take care of our industry, such as the breeders, the gamblers, and the owners who race the horses. We need to make sure that our fans don't go elsewhere, such as Las Vegas, because we haven't catered to them. We need to look at all the options and put together packages that entice new people, especially youngsters, to participate. We also need to keep our focus on the welfare of the horses."—[TOC Online](http://TOC Online)

TOC Schedules Open Forum

Horsemen are invited to an open forum to be held Saturday, February 8, at 10:30 a.m. in the Baldwin Conference Room on the third floor of the Clubhouse Level at Santa Anita Park. Registration ends February 7 at 5:00 pm.

Only Sour Taste Remains After Horses Depart Hollywood

The hostage crisis has ended.

Thoroughbred racing in California at long last has been freed from the passive/aggressive captivity imposed by the owners of Betfair Hollywood Park. As of Friday, January 31, the remaining few horses were being vanned out of the spacious, relatively modern backstretch that was used for nearly a decade as leverage for the owners of Hollywood Park to maintain their cynical stranglehold on the sport.

However, just because the owners of Hollywood Park have gone – and taken the track with them – does not mean that the California industry is immediately free from the effects of the last eight years, when the property was owned by a land development company that cut capital improvements to the bone, deferred maintenance, and eventually abandoned any pretense of a viable marketing program. —continued at www.DRF.com, By Jay Hovdey

Rams Owner Buys Land Near Hollywood Park

A 60-acre parking lot on land adjacent to shuttered Betfair Hollywood Park has been acquired within the past month by developer Stan Kroenke, owner of the St. Louis Rams.

The Inglewood parcel, on the west end of the racetrack property, was the subject of discussions between the late Raiders owner Al Davis and then-Hollywood Park chairman R.D. Hubbard in the late 1990s as a possible site for an NFL stadium. The proposal was later dropped and the land sold, and in recent years it has been mostly unused while sometimes serving as an overflow parking area for the nearby Forum.

The land is not part of the 238-acre commercial and residential development expected to begin this spring of the existing racetrack property to be known as "Hollywood Park Tomorrow." —continued at www.BloodHorse.com, By Jack Shinar

Fencing Crucial For Farm Safety, Value

The first impression that a farm gives to its visitors is not the gates that welcome them to the property but often the fences that line roads on the drive to get there.

Those fences have a dual purpose, not only keeping the horses in their confines but serving as the roadside advertisement of a farm's attention to detail, safety, and upkeep. The quality of a farm's fencing also can affect its property value.

"Fencing is important," said Bill Bell, an agent for Justice Real Estate, a prominent realtor of Thoroughbred farms in Lexington, Kentucky. "The horses are going to injure themselves if there is any possible way. They'll figure out a way to hurt themselves, so you want to try to make things as safe for them as you can, and good fencing is important." —continued at www.DRF.com, By Joe Nevills

The Del Mar Thoroughbred Club Hires David Jerkens

David Jerkens, currently the racing secretary at Northern California's Golden Gate Fields, will relocate to Southern California in early June and assume the role of racing secretary at the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, it has been announced.

Jerkens, 35, is being brought on at Del Mar to strengthen the racing department headed by Tom Robbins, the track's executive vice president for racing and industry relations, as well as its long-time racing secretary. —From DMTC, Continued at www.ctba.com

California Weekly Hay Report From Friday, January 31, 2014

For Any Questions On This List Please Contact: 970-353-9750

Tons: 5,975 Last Week: 7,006 Last Year: 4,290

Compared to last week: Prices remained firm in most areas, with advancements by as much as 5.00 higher in the Imperial Valley. Some rain fall was reported in the Northern and Central Regions of the state, with some much need snow falling in the Sierra Nevada's. The hay market continues to march higher, as this is the driest January on record in the state of California. There has been a high pressure ridge lurking off the coast for the last 13 months which is responsible for blocking winter storms and precipitation from reaching California, according to the Daily Mail. Producers are already concerned about the water situation next year. According to the Wall Street Journal, most farmers haven't received water they're due for since 2008 when federal regulators began restricting water exports from the Delta to residents in the south to protect "threatened" fish such as the smelt and the salmon. The federal regulations have caused millions of acre-feet of water to be flushed into the Bay instead of being sent down the line to irrigate crop lands in the Central and Southern regions of the state. Livestock producers are beginning to search for hay outside their normal marketing areas, with reports of hay moving out of Oregon, Nevada, and the Imperial Valley to try and meet demand while supplies last. Trade activity was active on very good buyer demand. All prices reported FOB at the stack or barn unless otherwise noted.
