The statistics contained in these rankings are compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems Inc. (TJCIS). While every effort is made to prevent errors and omissions, California Thoroughbred cannot guarantee their complete and total accuracy. A dagger (†) indicates that a stallion has been pensioned, an asterisk (*) that he has died, a dot (•) that he is now standing elsewhere, a number sign (#) that he did not stand in California in 2013 but is standing in the state in 2014, a double dagger (‡) that he is not standing in California in 2014 but will stand in the state in 2015 and in bold that he is a freshman sire. In all cases, a sire will remain in the rankings until the year after his last California foals are two-year-olds. Statistics cover racing in North America (U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico), England, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates only.

Putney School in Vermont in 1942, joining the army shortly thereafter to serve in India and China during World War II. He became the youngest 1st Lieutenant in the Army. Upon discharge from the Army in 1946, he returned to Los Angeles to attend UCLA. In 1947, he married Dorothy Anne Cleary, the daughter of close family friends James and Budie Cleary who had named her after Lathrop's mother. He graduated from UCLA in 1950 with a degree in banking and finance.

During college he supported himself in part by making jewelry (the Lathrop Gray Co), which he continued as a hobby throughout his life. After college he began in the automobile business with the PGH Company, selling Studebakers from the downtown Los Angeles dealership which he acquired in 1953. When Studebaker closed in the United States, he established Hoffman Tile, manufacturing ceramic tile in Claremont.

In 1971, he purchased the Volkswagen dealership on Sierra Avenue in Fontana. Since then, he has owned franchises for Acura, Alfa Romeo, Audi, Buick, Cadillac, Chevrolet, Chrysler, Daihatsu, Dodge, Fiat, GMC, Harley-Davidson, Honda, Isuzu, Jeep, Lincoln-Mercury, Maserati, Mazda, Oldsmobile, Pontiac, Porsche, Ram, Saturn, Subaru and Volkswagen. Over the years, he had stores in Fontana, Los Angeles, Long Beach, Monrovia, Duarte, Alhambra, Riverside, San Luis Obispo, Fort Bragg and Eureka. He has been an influential dealer throughout, serving on many dealer association boards and dealer advertising boards. He was always a good neighbor dealer, supporting the communities he served and representing the retail automobile industry in a positive way.

He was a founder and board member of the Bank of Monrovia, which became Granite State Bank and was later acquired by Citizens Business Bank.

His community involvement ranged from serving as an advisor to the local redevelopment agency, participating in service clubs, serving as president of the Chamber of Commerce and giving financial support to many organizations, including the Boys and Girls Club, local police and fire departments, schools, little league and soccer teams, hospitals and the Monrovia Public Library. He was also an avid golfer and active member of the San Gabriel Country Club for many years. He was a long-time thoroughbred horse owner and breeder and a familiar face at the Santa Anita Park racetrack. When he was 16 years old, his brother Hallock taught him to fly. He loved flying and was an accomplished pilot, with a license to fly single and multi-engine aircraft. He obtained his helicopter license when he was 79.

He is survived by his wife of over 66 years, Dorothy, and his sisters Barbara Henry (Richard) and Kiriki De Diego Metz and seven children, Mary Lathrop Fahey (Jack), Peter Hoffman (Toni), Michael Hoffman (Rene), Elizabeth Hoffman, Thomas Hoffman (Ellen), Marguerite Winnacott (Neal) and Patricia Juett (Dennis). He is also survived by 18 grandchildren, Zachary Rounds, Megan Rounds Cadena (Robert), Parker Rounds, Jenny Fahey, Brian Hoffman, Leah Hoffman, Michael Hoffman, Haley Hoffman Stearns (Ethan), Ashley Hoffman, Paul Hoffman, Danna Hoffman, Robert Hoffman, Caitlin Winnacott, Brett Winnacott, Brendan Winnacott, Blair Winnacott, Blake Juett and Colin Juett, three great grandchildren, Gray Stearns, Molly Stearns and Maximilian Fahey, step-grandchildren Diana Atkinson and her three children Tyler, Summer and Logan and Silver Hartman (Paul) and their two children Sienna and Riley.

He was pre-deceased by his son Timothy in 2003 and his brothers Hallock, Peter, Donald and Robert.

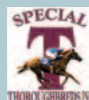

Lathrop was a devoted family man whose great joy later in life was taking his entire family on annual vacations so they all could enjoy one another's company. He was a good, kind and generous man interested in every opportunity life offered him. He was an inspiration to his children and grandchildren, a consummate deal maker and a wonderful story teller.

Details of a memorial service or celebration are yet to be announced.—continued at www.ctba.com, By Ken Gurnick

10th Annual HERO Ride For Life Of Ferndale May 3

The 10th Annual HERO Ride For Life will be held on Saturday, May 3, 2014, at the Ferndale Fairgrounds racetrack.

The HERO Ride For Life is a relay fundraiser on horseback and the proceeds benefit the American Cancer Society. Teams of horses and riders relay at a walk at the Ferndale Fairgrounds Racetrack from 9am to 4pm. Download and mail a team registration form or register at the event beginning at 7am <http://www.herorideforlife.org>.

In 2004, as a freshman at Eureka High School in Eureka, California, Holly LaCount enrolled in a service learning program called Environmental and Spatial Technology (EAST) in which students develop projects to solve problems in their community. Holly wanted to develop a project that would combine her love of horses and her desire to make a difference in her community.

To honor her Grandma Joy, who died of ovarian cancer in 2003, she decided to develop a project that would help fund cancer research and support services. Through planning and perseverance Holly founded the HERO Ride For Life, the first equestrian relay event in the country. —From HERO Ride For Life

Health Problems In Newborn Foals

A foal's birth marks the start of something exciting: a new partner to train, a clean slate with which to begin, and potential just waiting to be tapped. But something exciting can quickly turn to something disappointing if that foal isn't healthy.

At the 2014 Kentucky Breeders' Short Course, held February 8 in Lexington, Bonnie Barr, VMD, Dipl. ACVIM, an equine internal medicine specialist at Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital, also in Lexington, reviewed four common health problems newborn foals face. She also described what owners and breeding managers should watch for in each scenario and when to seek veterinary attention. —continued at www.Bloodhorse.com, By Erica Larson, News Editor

Transporting Your Horse In A Warmer Climate

There are many issues to consider when you're planning to transport your horse, especially if he's moving to a hot and humid climate. Veterinarians often talk about 'acclimatization' and how a horse must have enough time to acclimatize to a new weather pattern after moving to a different region. But acclimatization is not just about time or simply letting the horse "get used to it"; rather, it's more about how we can help prepare our horse for this change.

As the world gets smaller (or warmer!) and we transport our horses to various countries for competition, breeding, or training, a good working knowledge of how we can make this transition more comfortable and safe is essential.

Water and Electrolytes: Horses need these two items both to maintain body function and to produce sweat—the main avenue whereby horses can lower body temperature through evaporation. Evaporation comprises 60 percent of the body's ability to lower body temperature; the remaining 25 percent is by expiration (through the lungs) and 15 percent by convection. If a horse is dehydrated and does not consume enough electrolytes, we often see them lose their ability to sweat.

Panting Horse: Heavy panting is a sign of hyperthermia.

To compensate, the horse's heart rate might increase as he tries to bring the heated blood to the skin and his respiratory rate might increase as he tries to lose heat through the lungs. —continued at www.Bloodhorse.com, By World Equine Veterinary Association, By Siraya Chunekamrai, DVM, PhD

Feeding Horses For Sales Preparation

Nutrition has an important role in sales preparation for all horses. If you want to maximize the value of the horse, it is essential to have the horse looking its best at sale time.

There are a number of key elements including the following:

Size and body condition: Young horses being prepped for sale should be on a smooth growth curve to avoid growth spurts and to reach optimum height at sale time. Size for appropriate age is a plus for most disciplines, and the sale horse should normally have a body condition score at five or slightly higher (on a nine-point scale).

Muscle, not fat: The modern sale ring rewards horses that have well-developed muscles rather than just being fat. Thin is not good, but obese is not desired.

CSU Research Project To Study Benefits Of Equine Therapy

A new partnership between two of Colorado State University's (CSU) flagship academic programs will lead to a better understanding of the potential benefits of equine-assisted activity and therapy (EAAT).

The five-year research program, led by Wendy Wood, PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA, head of CSU's Department of Occupational Therapy, is funded by a donation from the Carl and Caroline Swanson Foundation. The $468,000 gift will allow two graduate students, a PhD candidate and Wood to lead the research via a partnership with CSU's Equine Sciences Program.—continued at www.theHorse.com

Mini-Microchips For Horses Get Thumbs Up

The techie trend toward tinier-than-tiny microanything has now hit the world of equine identification. Horses necessitating microchip identification—a requirement in many countries, including the entire European Union—can now receive a “mini-microchip” implant.

Roughly 70 percent the size of the standard microchip, the mini-microchip “obviously works very well” and has clear benefits for the horse, explained Christine Aurich, DVM, PhD, Head of the Graf Lehnndorff Institute for Equine Science in Neustadt, Germany.

“It’s certainly better to insert a smaller needle than the one that was used for the ‘old’ chip,” Aurich said. “Therefore, the mini-chip should substitute the old transponder from now on.”—continued at www.theHorse.com

On April 8, 2007, Dancing General, a daughter of General Meeting, won the $100,000 Pro or Con Handicap for fillies and mares at Santa Anita Park, with Two Times Won second and Del Mar Ticket third in a field of six. Dancing General was trained by Rafael Becerra and ridden by Garrett Gomez. She ran the mile on turf in 1:37.16 and won by one-half length at odds of 1-2. Dancing General was the third of five foals out of the Nureyev mare Dance With Shadows. The Pro or Con was Dancing General's fourth win in 11 starts. She also placed in the California Cup Distance and the Fran's Valentine and finished her career with four wins in 12 starts and earnings of $324,800. Dancing General was bred by and foaled at Golden Eagle Farm, was a $32,000 purchase at the Del Mar Yearling Sale and was owned by Stan Fulton. As a broodmare, she has three unraced foals of racing age.

CTBA Magazine Update

The May 2014 issue of California Thoroughbred, the official publication of the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association (CTBA), is into production and featured as this edition's cover story is a wrap-up of the impressive win by the three-year-old colt California Chrome, bred and owned in California by Perry Martin and Steve Coburn and by Harris Farms' Lucky Pulpit, in the grade I, $1,000,750 Santa Anita Derby at Santa Anita Park on April 5.

Besides this article, the latest magazine also includes an advertorial highlighting a group of six 2014 foals at Madera Thoroughbreds, as well as many other feature stories of interest, such as: an In Memoriam tribute to California-bred Bertrando, the 1993 Eclipse Champion Older Male whose stud career produced the earners of more than $45 million and included two leading sire titles in the Golden State; an editorial on the legendary Sunday Silence, the 1989 Eclipse Horse of the Year who was out of the grade II-winning Cal-bred mare Wishing Well; a CTBA Member Profile on Dennis "DJ" Johnston, the breeder of L. A. Weekend who won last year's $75,000 Phoenix Gold Cup Handicap; a preview of Barretts Sales & Racing's May Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training that will be held in the Hinds Pavilion at Fairplex in Pomona on Monday, May 12; reviews of the stakes wins on the Santa Anita Derby program by the Cal-bred sophomores Alert Bay and Rovenna in the $200,000 Echo Eddie Stakes and $200,250 Evening Jewel Stakes, respectively; the latest chapter in our Cal-Bred Millionaires' Row series, featuring the 2006 gelding Amazombie who became the 58th locally bred runner to reach this plateau during his Eclipse Champion Male Sprinter campaign when he won the grade I, $1,363,500 Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Downs in Kentucky on Nov. 5, 2011; an Another Man's Treasure article on the 1995 Cal-bred gelding Road to Slew, a grade II winner at the age of six and now a pony horse at Santa Anita for Taylor Houser; the latest chapter in our A Blast From The Past series which spotlights the 1958 Cal-bred Olden Times whose racing career was highlighted by wins in the 1962 San Juan Capistrano Handicap and 1964 Metropolitan Handicap and whose success at stud included his banner year of 1982, when he was the nation's leading sire of two-year-olds due to the exploits of his Eclipse champion Roving Boy; a Down On The Farm editorial that provides information about early pregnancy loss in mares; the annual California-Bred Incentive Awards section, including both an explanation of this lucrative program and listings of all the Breeder Awards and Stallion Awards recipients of 2013; a Guest Forum piece that provides an update on the progress being made with respect to the relocation of the monument to and remains of the incomparable Cal-bred Native Diver from the now-defunct Hollywood Park to the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club; and all the many other interesting and informative features, departments and columns that this publication's loyal readers look forward to every month.

So now is the time to secure valuable advertising space in this latest copy of California Thoroughbred, the monthly publication that remains the best medium for marketing Thoroughbred stallions, farms and businesses in the Golden State. To ensure representation in the May 2014 issue, please contact the CTBA's Advertising Manager Loretta Veiga without further delay at either Loretta@ctba.com or (626) 445-7800, extension 227.
